Referee Instructions for Red Cards
When a red card is issued please enter a code in the R column to show the offence as follows:

A. Serious foul play	F. Offensive or insulting language or gesture directed at a game official
B. Violent conduct	G. Offensive or insulting language or gesture not directed at a game official
C. Spits at an opponent	H. Receives a 2nd caution when at least one caution was for an offence directed at a game official
D. Denies an obvious goal scoring opportunity by hand ball	I. Receives a 2nd caution when neither caution was for an offence directed at a game official
E. Denies an obvious goal scoring opportunity by foul

You may handwrite a name but ONLY if the player is registered with the Club. No exceptions on this.

Must be initialised by a coach or manager

This must be checked "yes" before the game if you protest a player or anything

Every coach and manager on the bench must sign the sheet.

Only certified coaches may be on the bench with a max of 4 people.

Managers must be on the sheet to be on the bench.

Other:

Only properly certified coaches can be on the game sheet and on the bench. Ask your Club for a Team Roster Report (TRR). If the coach is not on that report, then they are not yet approved/certified and cannot be on the bench.

The game cannot take place without a properly certified coach on the bench. If no certified coach arrives for your game, notify the referee that the team will have to forfeit.
